MEET YOUR BOARD MEMBERS

There are 27 board member positions in the ESDCTA. All positions are filled by volunteers. People like you who want to further the education and opportunities for the dressage and eventing community of the New Jersey, New York, and Pennsylvania area. There are 15 voting positions: President, Vice-President, Treasurer, Secretary, Member at Large-Dressage, Member at Large-Eventing, Dressage Chairperson, Eventing Chairperson, Education, Finance, Marketing, Year End Awards, Youth, Membership, and NJEAB Representative. Although the following positions have no "vote," they are an integral part of the ESDCTA. They report to various voting members; their voices are heard and their work is necessary and appreciated. Those positions are: Webmaster, Grants, Activities, Equipment, Newsletter, Omnibus, PR Coordinator, Sponsorship Dressage and Eventing, USEA Representative, USDF Representative, and Volunteer Coordinator.

We would like you to meet the people who represent you, and each month we will be highlighting a few of the board members so you can recognize them, say "Hi," and speak with them at the horse shows and educational events the ESDCTA sponsors and supports, or at the local tack shop!

First up, meet your "Officers:" President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer.

Our new President, Lisa Toaldo, is responsible for A LOT! She makes the agenda for meetings, prepares the budget with the finance committee, is the chief officer for all official communications, sits on all committees....the list is endless, but can be found in our "By-Laws" which are on the website.

A second-generation equestrian, Dr. Lisa Toaldo has been passionate about horses all her life. She has served on many Executive Boards in various roles. An avid show manager, competitor, volunteer, TD apprentice, L Program coordinator, and show mom, she brings her wealth of experience and enthusiasm to the ESDCTA Board. She served the board most recently as Marketing Chair and was on the Dressage committee for the past 5 years, managing the ESDCTA Championship show and assisting with the CDI on Memorial Day weekend. Her goals are to welcome new members and excite present membership through educational programs for adult amateurs, professionals, juniors, and anyone who just has a passion for horses. She feels the club should be inclusive and transparent to all, and welcomes new ideas. Contact her anytime, and share the excitement for ESDCTA!

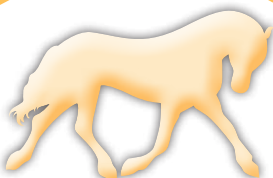

Heidi Lemack, our Vice-President, helps out the Youth Committee and Education Chairperson, and helps the President.

"I started riding when I was 8, had my first pony at 11, and have been with horses in my life ever since. I worked in NYC as an elementary school teacher for eight years, before combining my love of teaching and my love of horses at my farm, Rhythm and Blues Stables in Allentown, NJ. As a teenager, I competed in equitation and the junior hunters. After college, I decided I wanted to event. I knew how to jump, I knew how to go cross country, but had no idea about the whole dressage thing. So I found a dressage trainer, Dee Muma (Long Island), and I rode her young horses and her grand prix horses, and I never looked back. Currently, I am a USDF Bronze and Silver medalist and "L" graduate. I love teaching adults and young riders with my husband Jason Beck, and developing horses to be willing and happy athletes. I hope to compete my homebred Fulbright in the four-year-old classes and my other horse, Depardieu, at grand prix this coming season. (please don't tell them!) I have been a member of ESDCTA for 16 years. Over the years, I have scored, scribed, done set up for horse shows, stewarded the warm-up rings and been ring steward. Three years ago, I joined the board as a Youth co-Chair alongside Jill Kuc and Cindy Roesener. Feel free to contact me with any ideas to help our organization serve you better."

Beth Ann Adams, the Secretary, tirelessly writes the minutes for the monthly board meetings, carefully transcribes discussions, policies and procedures voted on, and keeps attendance. She also is in charge of being our ambassador; sending cards and

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

If you are a trainer, judge, a professional, or a new rider looking for a professional, we are formulating our Professionals Directory. It will be up and running on our website soon. Contact me if you want to be included in this section of our website.

We are looking for pictures and articles for our newsletter, we welcome your input. Are you an aspiring writer? It's a great way to get your own byline! All youth members, the Youth 2014 program is underway, check out what is new and exciting.

Our education committee is working hard on putting together some great programs for spring, summer, and fall.... Keep checking our website for more details. Need information on ESDCTA recognized shows? Enter our website and you can print off a calendar and listing of all shows in our online omnibus .

It has been 3 months now since I became your President, and not a day goes by that I don't learn something new about our club and its members. It is a joy and privilege to represent you. Recently, at the Region 1 Spring meeting, I had to give a report about our club and present our proposal for hosting the CBLM's. It was with pride I could report all the great things that are happening in our club.

The very best outcome of the meeting, if you have not heard, was that we were awarded the host site in 2015 for the CBLM's. If you are not familiar with them check our website, it gives a great explanation of these championships. It will be a GREAT event for us, and we are very excited to have them back, it's been too long without them. I hope you all qualify and can ride or attend to cheer on your friends. The Dressage committee promises to make it a spectacular event!

Enjoy the better weather, dust off the boots and get ready for a great spring!

Respectfully,
Dr. Lisa Toaldo

THE JOURNEY IS THE AWARD

By Meredith Rogers

I achieved a long-time goal of mine last year, but instead of feeling overjoyed, I'm feeling a little underwhelmed. I think it's because the journey to get here has been more of an accomplishment than the award itself. It may be silly, but ever since I bought my horse 3.5 years ago, I've wanted a USDF All Breed Award. I thought it would be quite doable, since there weren't many horses competing in his declared breed: Georgian Grande. But, I hadn't taken into consideration all of the obstacles along the way.

First, I had bought a horse barely at Training Level whose fitness was sorely lacking. It took an entire year to get him strong enough to canter without throwing himself into it with his front end because he didn't have the strength in his hind end. Second, my riding ability should have been paired with a schoolmaster who could teach me how to properly get a horse into contact or what correct bend felt like; but no, I fell in love with a green bean. Thankfully, he has the disposition of a saint. However, because we are discovering this thing called "dressage" together, progress has been slow but at least it has been in the right direction.

Third, getting to shows took feats in scheduling to be able to finagle rides from friends and barn mates. Therefore, our show experience was limited to the occasional schooling show, which didn't help my horse learn to deal with all of the things that go with showing (eg, judges stands, strange horses passing too close for comfort, spectators in dark corners, etc.) or me learn to deal with how my horse reacted to these changes in venue.

This year, after two years of acceptable scores at schooling shows, I was ready to take the plunge into USEF Recognized Competition and go for it. The first thing I did was get a truck and trailer. My old car was on its last wheel anyway. During this year, I've figured out how to drive the rig both forwards and backwards (sort-of). I even drove home in the dark from my last horse show. I can now load and unload my horse by myself, something which had been an issue in the past. Although I haven't had to go it totally alone thanks to my nonhorse husband and a great group of friends, I feel confident that I could get my horse and I to a show, get through the competition in one piece (with a straight stock tie), and home again by myself if I had to.

To get a USDF All Breed Award, one needs to have 8 scores with median of 60% from 4 judges at 4 shows. Living in a very equestrian part of the country I didn't think this would be a problem, but it was. To get to 4 separate shows without repeat judges, I had to travel further than I had gone for a show in a long time, to places I had never been before. I had never done a 2-day dressage show before, but this

ESDCTA Statement of Purpose

Eastern States Dressage and Combined Training Association (ESDCTA) was founded in June 1969 and incorporated in 1970 as a nonprofit educational organization under the laws of the State of New Jersey. ESDCTA with membership open to all interested in dressage and combined training, has the following stated purpose:

"Whereas it is the desire among many equestrians in the United States to foster and stimulate interest in dressage and eventing in the hope that this may ultimately benefit the United States Olympic Team in its international competition, this organization is established as a nonprofit educational organization."

Its further purposes are to foster and stimulate interest in dressage and eventing in general, to educate, conduct clinics and hold dressage shows and combined training events.

year I did in order to get enough scores. I learned I never want to do that again! It was stifling hot for several of the shows, so I had to figure out how best to warm-up my horse before trotting down center line when both of us just really wanted to lounge in the shade. This year also solidified my philosophy that the horse comes first, when I scratched a show because it was just too hot for him. Of course, that left me scrambling at the end of the season to find a fourth show to attend.

With my riding, I took the judge's comments to heart, and in between competitions, I worked with my trainers to fix what needed to be fixed and improve upon our strengths. Both my horse and I have improved by leaps and bounds, and I credit it to the push of needing to get those scores. I've learned to trust my horse more, since he behaved himself despite the adrenaline show environment. I also have more confidence in myself as a result of me realizing that I'm not as bad of a rider as I thought I was.

I do admit that I'm happy show season is over for us – it was a lot of pressure. But, I've been inspired to continue on. Next year it will be back to schooling shows, but (hopefully) at first level. And, maybe in another year or two, we'll try again for a national USDF award, or maybe Regional Championships, or just going to a bigger show than we've ever gone to before. I can see a long, but fulfilling, road ahead of us.

COMMUNITY NEWS

Spring is finally here!!!! It's been a long winter, and we are all ready to shed those hats and mittens and heavy blankets with hoods. It's also a good time to take a look around your farm and a good look at your horses. Did the snow plow wreak havoc on your driveway? Does your outdoor ring look like a river went through it? Any cuts or scabs under all that shedding hair? Is your trailer still in one piece? Also, it is a time to plan your show and clinic schedule (the fun stuff) – check out our new online Omnibus at ESDCTA.org. And if you're of that age, it's time to start bugging your parents about horse camp! Ah, spring: a time to look forward at all of the fun we're going to have with our favorite equines. Enjoy!

WHAT'S YOUR TALENT??

Let us know what you would like to help us with in 2014. All skills and interests wanted. Have an idea? We want to hear about it. Also, we are currently looking for a Membership chair, an Awards chair and Marketing chair. Remember, this club is what YOU make it. Contact president@esdcta.org if you are interested.

well wishes to people who may be injured or sick. But as you will read below, Beth Ann also does much more for the club.

"I joined ESDCTA as an Adult Amateur with my partner Pendragon. We proudly earned our share of ribbons and year-end placements. When not making our way down centerline I would be helping as a scribe. Volunteering as FEI scribe over the years has allowed me to witness our Nation's top equestrians while sitting alongside numerous esteemed judges. It was a natural progression to join the ESDCTA Dressage Committee. On the committee, my efforts as vendor coordinator has improved the field of vendors present at the events at HPNJ. I've assisted in promotional outreach through acquisition of advertising and by soliciting for free products to be given to dedicated volunteers and talented competitors. The ESDCTA Newsletter has published several of my articles with related photographs. I'm especially proud of the publications related to the CDI/MWD competitions. Another highlight of my volunteer work with ESDCTA is as the Show Secretary for the annual Championships. The position of entry secretary has allowed me to get to know members more personally. Five years ago I took on the job of Board Secretary. My objective as a Board officer has been and will continue to be as a spokesperson for our volunteers and Adult Amateur competitors. We are lucky to have so many knowledgeable and loyal volunteers. While at the same time the ranks of Adult Amateurs who support our activities is the reason why our organization continues to thrive. Currently my plans are to remain as Board Secretary and as Entry Secretary for ESDCTA's Championships. My passion for dressage has been revitalized by a lovely 17.1 hand mare named Fiona. You just might see me coming down centerline soon!"

Next up is Keith Adams, the Treasurer. He is responsible for writing checks and depositing checks, and making sure everything gets credited or deducted from the correct line item on the budget – not an easy task! He also volunteers at most horse shows, and though you may not have known his name, you will recognize his smiling, easy going, and intelligent face.

"I am a semi-retired Electrical Engineer having worked in the electronics field for over 40 years. Also, I am a Vietnam Era Veteran and served with pride in the USAF. Beth Ann (ESDCTA Secretary) and I have been married for 45 years, have 2 children and 3½ grandchildren (the latest is due in October). I enjoy hiking, science fiction, and horses. Many years have been spent at Devon watching grand prix show jumping and dressage, and working as a volunteer at the DAD. Since the mid-nineties I have been involved with ESDCTA, working at your horse shows, setting up rings, running, scoring, and doing whatever steward jobs were needed. For the past several years I have scheduled the rides for your Championships in the fall. It is a daunting task to schedule so many rides in one day, but it is very satisfying when it all comes together. Although I do enjoy grooming, grazing and working with our horses, I only ride during vacations (and then only Western)."

Feel free to contact any of us. Our contact information is on the website under the heading "About." We look forward to hearing from you, and seeing you at the educational events and competitions this year. Ride on!

ESDCTA has received the following information regarding planned competition arena upgrades. We wanted to share this good news immediately with our members.

HORSE PARK OF NEW JERSEY AT STONE TAVERN, INC.
626 ROUTE 524
ALLENTOWN, NEW JERSEY 08501

March 2014

Dear Show Managers:

The Horse Park of New Jersey wanted to give each an update of work underway for the preparation of the 2014 show season. The Facilities Committee, Board of Directors and staff are dedicated in improving the entire facility including the competition arena and warm up rings.

During the fall and winter work has been completed on repairing and improving drainage outside the competition areas so that the surrounding runoff can be managed and diverted away from the rings. During the early spring, drainage around the outside of the East Ring will be addressed so water can be drained more effectively away from the ring. Planning is underway on the warm up ring to address corrective actions on the slope and footing in that arena.

Also this spring, as weather permits, the competition arenas will be graded, leveled and the footing managed where needed in order to maintain suitability for the vast types of disciplines and riders that utilize the arenas.

The Facilities Committee and Staff are looking at various methods of ring maintenance and equipment so that the rings can be better maintained throughout the year. The park has acquired two new Parma Ring Conditioners to add to the types of equipment available and is looking into a smaller tractor to be used in working the rings more effectively. Specialized arena grooming for each event prior to, during and post events will be a high priority of the Horse Park.

In the future the vision of the Horse Park of New Jersey is to move toward being the Equine Destination Venue not just for the state but for the region, encompassing all types of equine competitions. In order to accomplish one part of this goal the Trustees are underway in the establishment of a capital campaign for arena footing, drainage and renovations. An honorary chairman will soon be publicly announced with the kick-off of the campaign.

Thank you to all for considering and utilizing the Horse Park of New Jersey for your equine event now and in the future

Sincerely

Daniel Wunderlich

Co-Chairman Labor and Facilities Committee

FOALIN' AROUND Youth News, Activities, and Opportunities

Thank You!

Every year at the Awards Luncheon, Jill Kuc organizes a raffle to raise funds for our youth teams and educational programs. Several of our youth members go from table to table selling tickets for the great products that have been donated.

The products donated were outstanding this year. Longtime supporter, Melodie Higgins, painted a beautiful horse portrait. Another longtime supporter, Horseman's Outlet, donated a fantastic jacket, lunchbox, and horse treats; and new to our raffle donating group, Skyland's Saddlery donated an Effol bucket of grooming supplies. The youth and the youth committee cannot thank these generous donors enough! We raised over $500. Please thank them next time you are in their stores or see them.

Also, Heather Hotham, a student at Millersville University majoring in fine arts, made bracelets for the silent auction, and had all funds earned earmarked to support the youth programs. Thank you Heather and grandma Beth Ann Adams!

Thank you Jill for doing such a great job organizing!

Fix-a-Test Clinics

To help you get ready for the show season, we are offering two more fix-a-test clinics around our membership area. At a fix-a-test clinic, the participant rides the dressage test of his/her choice, and a judge scores it just like at a horse show. The judge will then work with the rider to improve upon the test, and the rider can then ride the test again. The rider will receive a copy of both of their tests. This format is a great way to learn how to improve your scores and to hear and see how a judge arrives at a score for each movement. We also have an hour lunch discussion with the judge clinician. We encourage all youth to attend as riders or auditors and to plan to audit the entire day. Participants and all day auditors will receive 10 credits towards the Youth Educational Award.

Please see the Youth Page on the ESDCTA website for more detailed information.

2014 ESDCTA PERPETUAL TROPHIES

By Jean Goeltz – Perpetual Awards

Lazelle and Frederick Knocke of Hobby Horse Hill Farm hosted a large annual show to benefit the Family Nursing Service. In 1969, they went on to help found the Eastern States Dressage Association (ESDA), currently the Eastern States Dressage and Combined Training Association (ESDCTA). To commemorate the prestigious show, perpetual trophies were donated. Over the years, many farms, organizations and individuals have donated trophies, currently 19. The Perpetual Trophies are usually awarded at the ESDCTA Garden State Classic but we decided to change things up this year - the Perpetual Trophies are going to be awarded at the ESDCTA Memorial Weekend Show.

Riders do not need to submit any additional paperwork other than their show entry. Winners are determined at the end of the show and will receive mail notification. Each trophy winner will receive a "keeper plaque" for their own collection and ESDCTA will have the recipient's information added to the trophy.

All the trophies will be on display at the Memorial Weekend Show. Stop by and take a look at these beautiful trophies and see the names of past riders - your name could be next . . . and you will be in some good company.

Listed below are the trophies, type of awards, and levels. Please go to our website, www.esdcta.org for a history of each trophy and past recipients. You can reach me by e-mail at results@esdcta.org if you have any questions.

IT'S JERSEY FRESH TIME

May 8-11 at the HPNJ will be filled with exciting cross-country, elegant dressage, and knuckle-biting stadium by some of the greats in eventing. Previous years have brought such legends as Phillip Dutton, Buck Davidson, and Karen O'Connor, to name a few. Come watch the best of the best. There will be plenty of vendors to peruse, and good food to enjoy while taking it all in.

Although not an ESDCTA sponsored event, volunteers are needed for everything from jump judging to gardening and landscaping. Have only a few hours or want to spend the whole day helping out, there's a job for you. If you are interested in helping, please email: friendsofhpnj@gmail.com.

HORSE TREATS by Meredith Rogers

We all know that celebrities are not like us. They drive fancy cars, live in mansions, and have paparazzi following them wherever they go. But did you also know that some of them share our passion for horses? Here's a brief rundown on some famous people who ride (or at least own horses).

Chef Bobby Flay owns Thoroughbred racehorses, and he's an active fundraiser for the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation, raising hundreds of thousands of dollars. He was just selected as the recipient of the Earle I. Mack Thoroughbred Champion Award, given for outstanding efforts and influence on Thoroughbred racehorse welfare, safety, and retirement to be awarded June 6 as part of the Belmont Stakes Celebration.

Toby Keith, the country singer, also owns and breeds Thoroughbred race horses at his 160-acre Dream Walkin' Farm in Oklahoma. He owns about 20-30 broodmares, and keeps between 15 and 20 horses in training. His farm has a 4-stall barn, a seven-eighths-mile training track with a starting gate, and an indoor walker.

Jillian Michaels, fitness guru, owns (and actually rides) a Friesian-cross named, Buzz. When she was a child, she had an Appaloosa-Thoroughbred that her father sold out from under her when her parents got divorced. How horrible!

Supermodel Gisele Bundchen first learned to ride a horse in Brazil at her aunt's farm when she was just 8 years old. Her first ride was a bit exciting – a cowboy put her on a "very tall gelding" and then swatting him on the rump, which prompted him to take off. She loved every minute of it. When she has time, she rides at her cabin in upstate New York.

You may have heard that Madonna was injured when she fell off of a horse, not once, but twice (in 2005 and 2009). It was her 47th birthday in 2005 when she was presented with a new horse. She got on and within a minute was thrown, breaking 8 bones. In 2009, she fell while riding in the Hamptons. Although she said she had nightmares about the first incident, she still rides.

Comedian Chevy Chase rides Icelandic horses (remember, he's 6'4" – that must be a sight as these horses average about 14 hh). He says he gained his love of horses from his grandfather, a renowned equestrian portraitist.

Joe Perry, Aerosmith guitarist, and his wife own Friesians at their farm in Vermont. He is also very involved in animal charities, supporting the Sea Shepherd Conservation Society that protects marine mammals, and he assisted in funding a new animals shelter in his hometown of Duxbury, Massachusetts.
