BIOSECURITY IS EVERYONE'S BUSINESS

In light of the recent EHV-1 (equine herpes virus) outbreak, ESDCTA wants all competitors to feel comfortable that their horse's health is of primary concern to both our organization and the HPNJ management. At this time, biosecurity measures have been developed for the ESDCTA Memorial Day Weekend show. Please check the ESDCTA website regularly for any additional updates that may be posted.

Some highlights:

- All occupied stalls will be disinfected between each horse show
- It is strongly recommended that all horses be vaccinated for EHV-1
- A stall chart will be posted for you to document your horse's daily temperature and don't ship horses with elevated temperatures
- Use common sense: wash hands in between touching different horses, don't share equipment, don't immerse the hose end into your water bucket while filling it, avoid hand grazing

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

It is show season and we are on the road!

That means trailer safety. There was a great, succinct article in the May 2013 issue of Horse and Rider, written by Gavin Ehringer, titled "Trailer Care." Taking CARE of your trailer means safety, literally, down the road.

Yearly maintenance is a no-brainer. Here in the upper Mid-Atlantic, we may not be using our trailer during the non-show season of winter. Just sitting all winter does not mean that no use means no problems. In fact, it could be the opposite.

Ehringer says the annual inspection and servicing should include the tires, wheels, axles, brakes and suspension. He says tires "age like milk, not fine wine." Letting your tires sit all winter subjects them to rot, cracking and delamination.

Here is a good one – your trailer coupler. Have your mechanic check for proper torque of the hitch ball and proper function of the coupling system. How many times have we heard – and sometimes been involved – in a trailer DE-hitching!?!

Don't forget your lights, Ehringer warns. Not only are malfunctioning lights dangerous, they are illegal and you could get stopped. In addition to the inconvenience and cost of a ticket, why risk having to pull over with your horses?

Exterior and Interior inspections are also a must. Ehringer said taking care of the exterior will eliminate rust and rotting. If you can, store your trailer under a roof. Even an inexpensive tarp thrown on top will help.

The interior, of course, is all about the horses. Do a structural inspection but also remove the floor mats and inspect the floor. Ehringer points out that pointy objects or sharp edges have to go!

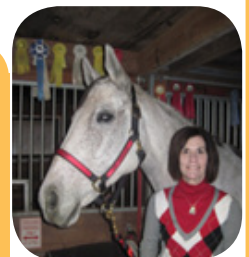

And finally, before you hit the road, Ehringer advises to keep these tools on board:

Road maps, GPS, cell phone with charger – first aid kit – fire extinguisher – water for horses and humans – horse blankets for shock and sleeping bags for humans in cold weather – stall equipment like shovels, brooms, buckets and sponges – flashlights, duct tape, extra halters and other emergency items – nonperishable food – legal and emergency paperwork, including your out-of-state veterinary certificates.

It is a long list to think about and prepare for, but well worth it.

I wish you safe travels during this show season!

"By failing to prepare, you are preparing to fail. An ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure." – Benjamin Franklin, 1706-1790, author, inventor, politician.

ESDCTA with membership open to all interested in dressage and combined training, has the following stated purpose: "Whereas it is the desire among many equestrians in the United States to foster and stimulate interest in dressage and eventing in the hope that this may ultimately benefit the United States Olympic Team in its international competition, this organization is established as a nonprofit educational organization." Its further purposes are to foster and stimulate interest in dressage and eventing in general, to educate, conduct clinics and hold dressage shows and combined training events.

SALUTE...

By: Rebecca Kuc

7-year-old Allison Roecker is a second grader at Pleasant Valley Elementary School in Brodheadsville, PA. This is Allie's second year as a member of ESDCTA, as well as her second season of more competitive showing! Allie keeps very busy with her school and riding and has also enjoyed many other activities such as soccer, lacrosse, gymnastics, and Girl Scouts.

Allie rides at Hidden Creek Equestrian Center in Kunkletown, PA, and despite her young age, helps many people at the barn and at shows. She always has an excellent attitude, which is what helped her be a 2011 recipient of the HCEC Dark Keioki Award, an award for good sportsmanship.

In 2012, Allie showed the lesson pony, I Found Nemo, at starter walk/trot. The pair was not only adorable, but did amazing as well. Allie and Nemo were Reserve Champion for ESDCTA Year End Awards at Starter Walk/Trot Jr. Allie was also Champion for Starter Walk/Trot at the NPASS Championships.

In December of 2012, the Roecker family purchased Nora, a QH mare to be shared by the family. Allie is the primary rider of this talented mare, however her dad now takes lessons on her as well, along with her two little sisters walking on her some too! Allie plans to compete Nora at starter walk/trot this summer and plans to go for ESDCTA Year End Awards again. Allie rode in the Youth Fix-a-Test clinic held at HCEC last year on Nemo and plans to participate this year on her own horse. Similarly, Allie has now joined one of the quadrille teams (on Nemo) for Ride 4 Hope, an event to raise money for St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital.

Although Allie is very young, she is a very determined rider who is already making her way to the show scene and gaining high awards. We wish Allie the best of luck on her first season with her very own horse!

OUT AND ABOUT HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST TO OUR EVENTING MEMBERS COMING SOON

By Cathy Brogan, ESDCTA Eventing Committee Member

Now that we are finally enjoying spring-like weather we all are ready to venture out and go to shows, either as a competitor, a volunteer, or a spectator. Consulting our handy 2013 Omnibus, the first event coming up is the CCI3*, 2* and CIC3*, 2* Jersey Fresh. The Pro Tour of Professional Riders has added this prestigious event to their list of "go-to events" and the names of the competitors again this year reads like a "Who's Who" of the top eventing riders in America. If you want to experience a wonderful day at the Horse Park of New Jersey (a location always worth visiting) to walk the cross country courses, to enjoy a tailgate picnic on Saturday, and to see an exciting stadium jumping finale on Sunday, please set your GPS to 626 Route 524, Allentown, NJ.

And while you are at the HPNJ, come over to the Pavilion Area where the 4-H clubs, the FFA clubs, and the NJ Region Pony Clubs will all be working hard to explain what their organizations are and why they enjoy being members of these outstanding youth organizations. All three groups will be offering activities for the young, doing fund raising to help their clubs, and presenting educational topics of interest to all.

If you like to compete in the northern part of the state, you could always enter the Dressage Schooling Show, Combined Test, and Horse Trials on May 19 at Oxbow Stables in Hamburg, NJ. A full schedule of dressage classes is offered, along with Horse Trial cross country courses through Novice and the Combined Test levels are offered thru the Preliminary Level.

ESDCTA's first cross country schooling day will be offered on the Sunday of Memorial Day Weekend. ESDCTA will also be running a CDI 3* and a CDI 1* Y/J Dressage Show at the same time. Eventers will have the opportunity to school cross-country jumps from pre-starter to preliminary heights. All entries will be accepted on Sunday, May 26, as post entries. Riders must have a ground person, and be wearing approved headgear, a protective vest, and have a medical armband. The fences will be in the back field and near the flag pole in the front. The front water complex and other jumps near the dressage rings will not be open for schooling.

The month of May's last show for eventers will be the Applewood Farm Dressage Show, Combined Test, and Clear Round Jumping. Check your Omnibus for more details on this show – page 143.

The New Jersey Region Pony Club will host an Open Schooling Horse Trials on Sunday June 2, 2013, at the HPNJ. This is a major fund raiser for the pony club members in NJ and the levels offered will begin at Pre-Starter (18"-20"), Starter (2' to 2'3"), Beginner Novice, Novice, and Training. This is currently the only open schooling horse trials on the calendar at the HPNJ for 2013. More info is available in the Omnibus on page 145. Entry forms can be downloaded from the NJRegionPonyClub.org website.

The NJ Region Pony Club is hosting an ICP Level I/II workshop – the Teaching of Dressage on June 11, 12 and 13 at Rainbow Ridge Equestrian Center, Flemington, NJ. This USEA Instructor Certification Program is geared towards giving eventing instructors the credentials, knowledge, and skills needed to be effective as trainers. To reserve a slot, please contact Cathy Brogan, the organizer, via email: cathybrogan@earthlink.net for applications and more info. Auditors are welcome @ $50/day.

Remember to support all ESDCTA registered shows and volunteer as your time allows. You will learn new skills and make many new friends.

HORSE TREATS

By MEREDITH ROGERS

Foaling season is in full swing. All of the planning, worrying, and praying is finally coming to fruition, with the birth of that perfect baby horse. Then the dreaming about what that horse will become begins! Below are some interesting facts about foals and foaling.

Most foals are born between April 15 and May 15.

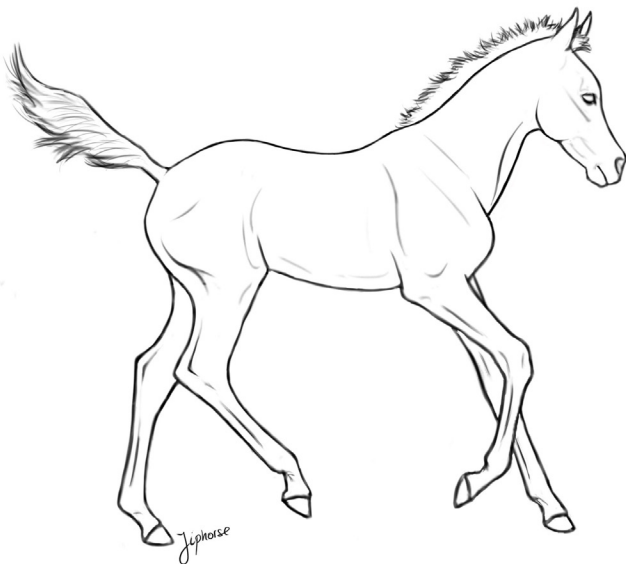

A newborn foal's legs are already 80%-90% of the length they will be when full grown.

Foals can stand within one hour after birth, and walk, trot, and run in just two hours after birth.

It can take as little as 15 minutes for a mare to give birth and as long as an hour.

Newborn foals consume 15%-25% of their body weight in milk daily in order to gain an average of 1-2 lb a day.

In the wild, foals continue to suckle until they are about one year old, but it could be longer.

THE MEMORIAL WEEKEND DRESSAGE AND

CDI 3*/1* Y/J ALLENTOWN IS JUST AROUND THE CORNER

ESDCTA is proud to be able to present our 4th CDI to run in conjunction with the Memorial Weekend Dressage (MDW) show, while striving to make our MDW show far more accessible and friendly to our members. This year we've added Intro classes and the new Rider tests. There are classes for FEI Ponies, Young Horses, Developing Horses, Juniors, Young Riders, Adult Amateurs and Open classes from Intro to Grand Prix, as well as the CDI 3* and 1* classes. This show truly has "something for everyone".

In order to showcase, encourage, and reward our adult amateur riders we're offering you two opportunities to compete against other adult amateurs and win prize money. We're continuing the Adult Amateur High Score Challenge (AAHC), sponsored by Blue Moon Dressage to include Training thru Fourth Level.

A totally new concept for this year is the introduction of the CDI 1* Adult Amateur Sweepstakes for those adult amateurs riding at the FEI levels.

How to enter? Obtain your FEI Rider and Horse Registration numbers and then complete the USEF National Passport application. There are links to these quick and easy applications on the ESDCTA CDI show page website. www.esdcta.org/CDI/index.html. Your horse will need the double Equine Influenza vaccinations and then you're good to go. Check out the instructional flyer on the website.

While all these exciting options are available for competitors we hope that the entire membership will become engaged and help us make the show a huge success.

Other ways to be involved include:

- Volunteering: contact Terry Masters: terrymasters@verizon.net
- Placing an ad in the show program: contact Carol Conner: bluemoonfarm@comcast.net
- Promote your business with a vendor booth: contact: Beth Ann Adams: baakaa68@gmail.com
