ESDCTA'S ANNE GRIBBONS CLINIC: AN ENJOYABLE LEARNING EXPERIENCE

Visualized Memories LLC

By: Julia Peterson

ESDCTA's recent clinic with Olympic Coach Anne Gribbons was a huge success. Held on August 4, 2014, at Hawk Hollow Ranch, the clinic had a full schedule, featuring an entire day of riding, during which participants rode in front of a "packed house" of auditors. During the lunch break, Cindy Anderson from Blue Bridle Insurance gave a useful presentation on equine liability issues which included information relevant to many types of riders and situations (eg, barn owner, professional trainer, horse owner who boards, etc.).

In planning this event, ESDCTA wanted to create an occasion for members to work with someone of a very high caliber, and to offer this opportunity not just to those riding at the highest levels but to riders of all levels. Our organization was very fortunate to be able to present Anne Gribbons in that capacity. It was fortunate also that she aligned with, and embraced our educational goals. When discussing the upcoming event, Ms. Gribbons was enthusiastic about the instruction-based format of the clinic (as opposed to an exhibition or symposium), welcoming the opportunity to teach.

Anne Gribbons, a native of Sweden, has been active in dressage in the United States since 1972. She has trained and shown sixteen of her own horses to Grand Prix, nine of which were United States Equestrian Team long listed. Anne is a USEF "S" judge and an FEI judge. She served as Technical Advisor and Coach for US dressage from 2010-2012 and was inducted into the Roemer Foundation/USDF Hall of Fame in 2013.

Response to the announcement of the clinic was positive, generating a long waiting list of riders (including non-ESDCTA members). The selected riders included amateurs, professionals, and young riders/juniors, riding at various levels (1st through GP).

Grace Alexander rode her horse Vicky; Randy Leoni rode her horse Filomina; Nancy Bincarousky rode her horse Rafiki; Lisa Teresa Mauriello rode her horse Crossfire's Desert Rose; Alexandra Tomson rode her horse Teodor; Amy Howard rode Beth Bauer's horse Ultra Light; Susan Herster rode her horse Dario; and Heather Mason rode two of her horses: Zar and Warsteiner.

Ms. Gribbons was the consummate educator. She put all of the participants at ease, emphasizing that the purpose of the day was not to put on a show but to use the time to work on problems. Her approach was highly interactive and stressed individualized solutions suited to each horse and rider combination. Between the general themes, the specific exercises, and the wide range of riding levels, there were plenty of "take-aways" and benefits for all involved, including the auditors, whose feedback and questions were encouraged.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

What a busy 2 months ESDCTA has had! We ended July with our new show series, Summer Days at USET. It was one of the most successful shows we have ever organized. The weather was beautiful and everyone had a great time, whether they were showing or just watching. It was a tremendous effort on Terry Masters, the Dressage committee, and volunteers, but the effort paid off. But then, who would not want to spend time at the USET. Every time I walked into the barn I thought, am I using the same path Ravel or any of the other great dressage horses used? How lucky are we to have this venue right in our "backyard"! Needless to say, we will be having that show again in 2015.

August brought us Anne Gibbons, and what a delight that was. Our clinic was filled with juniors, adult amateurs, and professionals. Our venue was the beautiful Hawk Hollow Ranch, with its spectacular indoor arena. Auditors filled the room and everyone was thrilled to learn. Ann was enlightening and educating for all, with great take-home exercises for all the riders. Cindy from Blue Bridle presented a great "lunch and learn". Thank you to all, Ann, Randy, and Serge, all the volunteers, the sponsors, Melissa, Hedi, and the Education Committee for putting on a well-run clinic. This was the first of many educational opportunities we will present going forward into 2015. Just as an aside, check out Anne's book that just came out, "Collective Remarks". It is a great read!

Our website has changed a bit; we are always trying to make it better for our members. Perhaps the best news is the return of the printed Omnibus! You asked and we listened. It's back, for 2015.

In September we will host our Dressage Championships and October will bring the Garden State Classic and the Eventing Championships. Plan to attend and check out the web for more details. Autumn is also the time to renew your membership; be a part of our club for 2015 as we have great things planned. As always, we want your input to make our club the best it can be. So, enjoy the mild weather.

Respectfully,

Dr. Lisa Toaldo

ESDCTA Statement of Purpose

Eastern States Dressage and Combined Training Association (ESDCTA) was founded in June 1969 and incorporated in 1970 as a nonprofit educational organization under the laws of the State of New Jersey. ESDCTA with membership open to all interested in dressage and combined training, has the following stated purpose:

"Whereas it is the desire among many equestrians in the United States to foster and stimulate interest in dressage and eventing in the hope that this may ultimately benefit the United States Olympic Team in its international competition, this organization is established as a nonprofit educational organization."

Its further purposes are to foster and stimulate interest in dressage and eventing in general, to educate, conduct clinics and hold dressage shows and combined training events.

MORE FROM THE ANNE GRIBBONS CLINIC

Hawk Hollow Ranch in Bedminster, NJ, provided the perfect setting for the event. Melissa Capazzoli, one of the event's organizers, expressed ESDCTA's appreciation towards the clinic's gracious hosts. "Without the support of Randy and Serge Leoni of Hawk Hollow Ranch we would not have been able to pull this off. We are grateful for their generosity, which enabled us to provide our members with this opportunity."

Indeed, accomplishing this clinic required a tremendous amount of planning, coordination, hard work, and expense by all of those involved. Many thanks to the ESDCTA Board, to Melissa Capazzoli, Heidi Lemack, Beth Ann Adams, and Lisa Toaldo (the clinic's organizers), to our wonderful volunteers (Beth Ann Adams, Marsha Montgomery, Grace Alexander, and Tenaya Marsh), to hosts Randy and Serge Leoni, and of course to Anne Gribbons. Thank you also to the clinic's sponsors: Amy Howard Dressage, Blue Bridle Insurance, German Equestrian Manufacturing, New Jersey Equine Imaging, Rhythm and Blues Stables, and Skylands Saddlery.

This clinic was truly representative of ESDCTA's educational mission. To further that mission and repeat similar events we need member support. Support can occur in a variety of ways. Some examples are: through input and feedback (let us know what you think); through participation and attendance at various events; and through volunteering. No matter how you choose to get involved, you'll learn a lot and enjoy yourself.

COMMUNITY NEWS

August is the height of show season but it is also prime vacation time. Just as you feel rejuvenated after taking a holiday, your horse may too. Have you noticed that he hesitates before fences he used to take in stride, or get a little stuck in his canter depart? Most of us give our horses some down time at the end of the show season or for the winter, but have you ever thought about giving your horse a little rest in the middle of all the action? Just a few days out in a field doing nothing but eating grass in the sun (or under the stars for those on night turnout) may be just what he needs to recharge and reenergize.

WHAT'S YOUR TALENT??

Let us know what you would like to help us with in 2014. All skills and interests wanted. Have an idea? We want to hear about it. ## THE ESDCTA JOCKEYS AT THE REGION 1 YOUTH TEAM COMPETITION IN LEESBURG VIRGINIA

By: Jessica Brindle-Clark, Grace Alexander and Sophia Calve

After getting the exciting news from Jill Kuc that we had made the team. Grace suggested that we all meet at the Memorial Day weekend show to talk about our team name and theme. We found a bench to have lunch together at the show and started talking about ideas. Grace and her mom suggested the idea of making our team theme the Triple Crown, and naming our team the Jockeys. Jessica, who is very proud of her thoroughbred Cycloptic Dillema (Dilly), decided that the team name the Jockeys was a great idea, and Sophia agreed. Grace suggested that we all pick a Triple Crown winner and one of the Triple Crown tracks for our decoration theme. Sophia knew lots of information about jockey silks and the different race tracks, so that was easy.

We had our second meeting at Warren Hill Farm two weeks before the trip to Virginia. Amy Howard offered to coach the team and gave us a fix a test clinic; it was so much fun to get together with our horses. After our clinic we had pizza and planned our decorations.

Finally the big weekend was here. We all arrived on Friday, Grace got to Morven Park first, and Grace and her family got right to work on the decorations. Wow, Grace and her Mom were VERY creative! By the time Sophia and Jessica arrived much of the decorating was done and it looked awesome. We got our horses settled in and then tacked up to have a quick ride before the pizza party.

Saturday morning, Grace got up in time to be at the barn at 5 am for the stall decoration judging. She made a great presentation that included pictures and the theme music from each race track. We also each had our first test on Saturday. Amy Howard came along to coach and helped with warm-up for our tests. Our tests were scheduled close together so that we could watch each others' rides and cheer our teammates on. Saturday night, we went to dinner as a team; we had a great time sitting together and talking about all sorts of things, mainly horse related, of course.

Sunday, we arrived at the park to find out we won the stall decorating competition along with our barn mates, DVCTA. We also received honorable mention for stable management. We checked our team placing and saw that we were in third place and were within 1 percentage point of first place. We were excited and ready to bring it! The morning went by really fast. We started with Jessica doing Dressage Seat Equitation at the same time as Grace did Level 1 Test 3, followed by Sophia riding Level 2 Test 3. We had a small break and then Jess rode Training Level, Test 3. We all did great. The awards ceremony was in less than an hour and we had to change into our costumes and get our horses ready to be race horses. We even made flower blankets from the respective race tracks that we chose, and made jockey silks to represent real racehorses. Grace and Vicky went as Secretariat, Sophia and Thor as Spectacular Bid, and Jessica and Dilly represented Dilly's great-grandfather Northern Dancer. We looked awesome! We earned third place in our division and had a great victory lap. Sophia finished the show for us with her Harry Potter musical freestyle, she had a great ride. It felt like the weekend was over too quick.

HORSE TREATS by Meredith Rogers

We all know that celebrities are not like us. They drive fancy cars, live in mansions, and have paparazzi following them wherever they go. But did you also know that some of them share our passion for horses? Here's a brief rundown on some famous people who ride (or at least own horses).

Chef Bobby Flay owns Thoroughbred racehorses, and he's an active fundraiser for the Thoroughbred Retirement Foundation, raising hundreds of thousands of dollars. He was just selected as the recipient of the Earle I. Mack Thoroughbred Champion Award, given for outstanding efforts and influence on Thoroughbred racehorse welfare, safety, and retirement to be awarded June 6 as part of the Belmont Stakes Celebration.

Toby Keith, the country singer, also owns and breeds Thoroughbred race horses at his 160-acre Dream Walkin' Farm in Oklahoma. He owns about 20-30 broodmares, and keeps between 15 and 20 horses in training. His farm has a 4-stall barn, a seven-eighths-mile training track with a starting gate, and an indoor walker.

Jillian Michaels, fitness guru, owns (and actually rides) a Friesian-cross named, Buzz. When she was a child, she had an Appaloosa-Thoroughbred that her father sold out from under her when her parents got divorced. How horrible!

Supermodel Gisele Bundchen first learned to ride a horse in Brazil at her aunt's farm when she was just 8 years old. Her first ride was a bit exciting – a cowboy put her on a "very tall gelding" and then swatting him on the rump, which prompted him to take off. She loved every minute of it. When she has time, she rides at her cabin in upstate New York.

You may have heard that Madonna was injured when she fell off of a horse, not once, but twice (in 2005 and 2009). It was her 47th birthday in 2005 when she was presented with a new horse. She got on and within a minute was thrown, breaking 8 bones. In 2009, she fell while riding in the Hamptons. Although she said she had nightmares about the first incident, she still rides.

Comedian Chevy Chase rides Icelandic horses (remember, he's 6'4" – that must be a sight as these horses average about 14 hh). He says he gained his love of horses from his grandfather, a renowned equestrian portraitist.

Joe Perry, Aerosmith guitarist, and his wife own Friesians at their farm in Vermont. He is also very involved in animal charities, supporting the Sea Shepherd Conservation Society that protects marine mammals, and he assisted in funding a new animals shelter in his hometown of Duxbury, Massachusetts.

ESDCTA YOUTH TEAM FOR REGION 1 COMPETITION RESULTS

Congratulations to our team members Jessica Brindle-Clark and "Cycloptic Dilemma," Grace Alexander and "Vicky," and Sophia Calve and "Goose Landings Medallion Thor." They finished third in their division and won the stall decoration contest. A huge thank you to the fantastic parents and trainers of this team. Sophia is trained by Barbara Ebner, Jessica by Karen McClure and Grace by Amy Howard. Thank you to Ellen Brindle-Clark for serving as Chef. Outstanding job by all!

ESDCTA YOUTH TEAM FOR MILLBROOK HORSE TRIALS

* Our team for Millbrook in Millbrook, NY (July 31-August 3) was:

- * Deena Cahill and "Chris Bo Biss" at Training
- * Grace Lutfy and "Hideaways Corker" at Novice
- * Sofie Lutfy and "Archoman" at Training
- * Christy Pellegrino and "Christmas Eve" at Training

* Although the team was well prepared, the nature of horse sports took over. We had four well-ridden dressage tests, but Christy's mare "Eve" pulled a shoe after the second fence and pulled up, so she was eliminated. Deena's horse "Bo" decided he did not think the ditch was jumpable, and when they parted ways, they were eliminated. The other two riders Sofie Lutfy and Grace Lutfy both completed cross country double clear. Sophie was clear in show jumping and finished 7th. Grace had 4 SJ faults and 5 time faults, and still finished 18th.

* We are proud of your horsemanship skills and your team support. Thank you Chef d'equipe Tricia Lutfy.

ESDCTA YOUTH TEAM FOR REGION 1 PRACTICE SESSION

Amy Howard organized and taught a mini fix-a-test-clinic at Warren Hill Farm in Stockton, NJ, for the Region 1 team on July 11. Thank you Amy for donating your time and coaching our young riders!

LOOKING AHEAD

Fall is a great time for horses and their owners. The weather is usually more inviting and the footing is kinder to hooves. Area calendars are once again filled with dates of horse trials taking place within the area. Riders can choose between recognized and schooling events. It's a fabulous time.

Deciding what event to choose can be a bit of an issue. You need to balance time, family obligations, finances, riding goals, athletic effort, and fun. As wonderful as fall can be, we know that winter and significant curtailing of riding activities is not that far off. It's easy to become overwhelmed by pressures to squeeze in that better score for year-end awards, go up a level because it was an early year resolution or finally win the blue like all of your friends have. Dump all that pressure and select those events that work for you. For more thoughts on this, see the July 2014 eventing article in the Newsletter.

Of course, the ESDCTA New Jersey Horse Trials at the Horse Park is on your must do list. The venue is great and the atmosphere is always so welcoming. The team competition and championship activities have been developed to enhance the rider experience. The date, October 5, is a set up for the best weather, a blend of sunny warm and crispy fresh air. The event is also a great opportunity for volunteers. It's quite enjoyable to watch the variety of horses take on their tests. Professionals, with their developing mounts, and amateurs, often colorfully turned out to match their adorable equine partners, are all attracted to this event.

Fall is also a wonderful time to enhance your eventing talents by participating in activities other than horse trials. ESDCTA will be hosting one more cross country schooling day, at the Horse Park of NJ, on October 12. Bring your friends and take lots of pictures. See the May 2104 Newsletter for ideas on how to make the day even more fun.

The fall is also full of hunter paces. They are terrific for developing confidence for you and your horse. Terrain changes will help you and Mr. Ed develop balance. Secretariat will eventually realize that life isn't about a few minute sprint. He'll learn to back off and wait for you to set the pace. He'll learn that he's got to cross streams and pass scary farm equipment and assorted animals. Courage comes in numbers. Hunter paces are run in teams of two or three. Partnering your baby with a more worldly friend can help him display courage you or he never knew he had. The Turkey Trot, scheduled for November 16, at the HPNJ, should also definitely be on your calendar. See the ESDCTA website for details of this fun activity and all of the others ESDCTA offers.

Dear, ESDCTA,

Thank you so much for sponsoring me to go to Dressage & Kids. I wore my yellow shirt proud as I rode. My horse and I did well and placed 10th. Not what I had hoped for but was still pleased. Thank again for a great weekend.

From,

Eleanor
