ESDCTA YOUTH PARTICIPATE AT YDF

Fun, Learning, and Camaraderie at Lendon Gray's Youth Dressage Festival

By Ashley Maleson

On the second weekend of July, over 300 riders, comprising more than 60 teams of riders, competed in a three-day dressage and academic competition at Lendon Gray's Youth Dressage Festival.

Thursday and Friday were the "moving-in" days for the horses and the riders. After carting armfuls of tack, feed, buckets, brushes, hay, shavings, and maybe a couple things for the riders, team ESDCTA was successfully moved in. The weekend started with a written test based on two books that each age group of riders was required to read. The biggest challenge of the weekend was to make sure that our tests did not get blown away or soaked in the rain (the only imperfect weather we had all weekend). After the written test, we decorated our tack room and the whole stable area, transforming it into an amusement park complete with a roller-coaster (downsized), a tramcar, go-carts, games, prizes, merry-go-round horses, and balloons. This tack room tied us for the win in the coveted Tack Room Decorating Competition for the most elaborate tack room. After all the horses were fed and watered, and the tack room was decorated, team ESDCTA moved on to the hotel to swim, have a pizza party, and have some team bonding time.

Saturday was the day that everyone looks forward to: the actual riding competition. We were all to compete in a dressage equitation class and a dressage test. The show grounds were already in full swing by 5:30 in the morning. Horses needed to be braided, hand-walked, groomed, and fed, as well as needing their stalls cleaned. Saturday proved to be a challenge for me and my horse. Going from being turned out 24/7 to being in a stall all day and night caused my 7-year-old mare to have excess energy, which did not combine well with the crowded warm-up ring. But, we worked through it and had a very nice equitation class and first level dressage test. One thing I loved about this show was that everything was right on time. Also, it was educational and fun to watch other riders compete from intro, to FEI pony level, to forth level dressage. Supporting your team was an important factor in this competition. If I was not riding, taking care of my horse, or volunteering, I was cheering at the dressage tests of my teammates.

Saturday night consisted of the parade of breeds and the parade of teams. The parade of breeds showcased about 15 different horse breeds and facts about all of them. It was interesting to see all of the different breeds that were at the festival and how all of them could compete at the higher levels. The parade of teams was when our team came into play. Every team entered the arena and got awards based on overall scores of the competition and also the tack room competition. Preceding the very nice awards ceremony, at which Lendon and the judges spoke, was a pizza party for all of the competitors. One of the best parts of the whole weekend was being able to have ample time to socialize and meet new people who all share our love of horses. Being sponsored by the ESDCTA to compete in the weekend placed me on a team of people, most of whom I have never met but grew to love in only two days! I feel that we all met friends who we are going to keep for a long time.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Our membership has steadily climbed this summer to 700 despite the poor economy and equestrians having to pull in their belts a bit tighter. While our organization always has improving to do – and we continually try to make those improvements - our membership still values the current educational opportunities, shows, schooling opportunities, and the end-of year awards. Our members continue to support each other by joining year after year.

Perhaps all too often the unsung heroes are our business members. We currently have 24, who, again despite the economy, have seen the value in supporting our club. Not only do they support us with their dues, but many of them frequently support our programs as speakers, sponsors, and Silent Auction donators. They value reaching out to our membership and being part of our community and say it over and over again with their actions.

We in turn, try to give them some bang for their bucks. Each month, their business card ads are in the newsletter. Their listing in the Omnibus, which keeps on ticking as far as its shelf life is concerned, staying with our members for an entire year. They, of course, get discounts for other ads in the newsletter and on the web, which reaches out even beyond our community.

For a mere $85 a year, they receive all this value. Why do we continue to give them our support for such a nominal fee? So they continue to flourish. The equestrian community could not continue in this area with success if we did not have these businesses to purchase goods from, board our horses at, and receive training or other services that make owning horses and farms easier. Prices may have gone up but think what would happen if these businesses closed? Where would we go? How far would we have to travel to get the same goods and services? And the same customer service provided by people who are our neighbors?

Let's remember our businesses. Look at the business section on pages 22 to 23, and make a concerted effort to buy from a member. It's a partnership we want to, and should, nurture for the good of all of us!

ESDCTA Statement of Purpose

Eastern States Dressage and Combined Training Association (ESDCTA) was founded in June 1969 and incorporated in 1970 as a nonprofit educational organization under the laws of the State of New Jersey. ESDCTA with membership open to all interested in dressage and combined training, has the following stated purpose:"Whereas it is the desire among many equestrians in the United States to foster and stimulate interest in dressage and eventing in the hope that this may ultimately benefit the United States Olympic Team in its international competition, this organization is established as a nonprofit educational organization." Its further purposes are to foster and stimulate interest in dressage and eventing in general, to educate, conduct clinics and hold dressage shows and combined training events.

Sunday is what everyone seemed to call the "fun day". This day consisted of a prix caprilli class, a dressage trail class, and dressage musicals. All of these classes were optional and really tested the versatility of dressage horses that are mostly just ridden in a ring the same way every day. Additionally, on Sunday were the individual awards for all of the divisions.

I would like to thank Lendon Gray and all of the volunteers for making this experience wonderful, educational, and fun. It was an extremely organized and well-run show that entirely benefited us kids. I also want to thank the ESDCTA for sponsoring my first level team in addition to the training level team, which made it possible for all of us to compete.

Lendon Gray's Youth Dressage Festival is not a show that you want to miss, and it is an experience that every young dressage rider should have.

2011 ESDCTA CHAMPIONSHIP SHOW

QUALIFYING INFORMATION

Show season is hitting mid-stride but it's not too early to start thinking about the 2011 ESDCTA Championship Show. The date is September 18, 2011, at the Horse Park of New Jersey. Many of you have already qualified to ride in the show; for those of you who haven't yet qualified, there is still time. The qualifying period started on August 23, 2010, and will end August 22, 2011. Postcards will be sent to qualifying riders in the next couple of weeks.

You qualify to ride based on scores earned at ESDCTA-sanctioned schooling and recognized shows. You need only one score to qualify as follows:

Starter - W/T: USDF - A or USDF - B - One ride of 60% or higher

Starter – W/T/C: USDF – C or Training – 1 – One ride of 60% or higher

Training through Second Levels: Test 2 or 3 – One ride of 60% or higher

Third and Fourth Levels: Test 2 or 3 – One ride of 58% or higher

FEI Levels – One score of 58% or higher

Musical Freestyle - All Levels - One ride of 60% or higher

Although you only need one score to qualify to ride in the show, at the show, you will be riding the top two tests of the level, as follows:

Starter – W/T: USDF – A and USDF – B Starter W/T/C: USDF – C and Training – 1

Training through Fourth Levels: Tests 2 and 3 of the level

FEI and Musical Freestyle: One ride at the qualifying level

The same qualifying horse and rider combination must be paired at the show. If you qualified with the same horse in more than one division, you must choose only one division; you cannot ride four tests. All riders who qualified to ride in the show have automatically qualified to ride in Dressage Seat Equitation. Scores earned at the ESDCTA Championship Show can be used towards ESDCTA Year-End Awards – review the Year-End Award in the Omnibus beginning on Page 39.

The Starter Division is for riders, Junior or Senior, who have never ridden above 2011 Training Level, Test 1. If you were a Starter rider in 2010 and have not ridden over Training Level, Test 1, in 2011, you are still considered a Starter rider. The day you ride 2011 Training Level, Test 2 or higher, you are no longer considered a Starter Rider and cannot participate in the Starter Division at the championship show. Qualifying is based on Starter Rider, not Starter Horse. Refer to the Year-End Award criteria for a further explanation of Starter Rider.

Qualifiers are listed on the ESDCTA website (www.esdcta.or). If you think you've qualified but don't see your name on the list, please contact me so I can verify your qualifying ride. Opening day for entries is July 30, and the closing date is August 22. I may not be able to get the list up-dated in time so you can attach a copy of your qualifying test to your show entry.

Refer to Page 22 in the Omnibus for general show information. Pages 141-142 have the prize list and entry information. Show entry forms are available on the website.

Take a few minutes now to look at the information so you can have any questions addressed. Don't miss out on an opportunity to participate in this great show!

Youth News, Activities, and Opportunities

We've had lots going on this month! The ESDCTA Youth Committee hosted a very successful fix-a-test clinic at Rhythm and Blues Stables, Allentown, NJ on June 25, with Cindy Roesener "L" of CLR located at Beaver Creek Equestrian Center, as the clinician. We had three youth members, Madeline Griffith and "Snickers," Ashley Maleson and "Summer's Eve" and Amanda Perkowski and "Bacci," preparing for Lendon Gray's Youth Festival held July 8-10, one junior rider, Jenny Lackey and "Mo' Magic," wanting to improve her dressage scores while eventing, and three adults wanting to hone their dressage skills: Kathy Lackey, Bernice Lemack, and Tiffany Ruocco. Cindy worked on improving the quality of all of the rides and left all of the participants with work to do at home to continue improving their scores in the future. Thank you Cindy for donating your time and making this clinic a success! Also, thanks to our junior volunteer scribe, Hannah Marks.

We are very excited to be sponsoring a team of three riders to compete at the Difficult Run Horse Trials Youth Team Challenge in VA on Aug. 20-21, 2011. Our team members are Sofie Lutfy, Grace Lutfy, and Christy Pellegrino. Our Chef d'Equipe is Patricia Lutfy. Good luck everyone!

We also attended the Dressage4kids, Lendon Gray Youth Festival held July 8-10 in Saugerties, NY. We had 2 teams go and everyone had a great time. We even were tied for first in the team decorating contest for "most creative/most imaginative tack room." Our "High Riders" finished 6th in section C. Over 60 teams competed! Christy Pellegrino acted as our Junior Chef d'Equipe and did a fantastic job organizing the team and leading them by example. She (and her mother, Janice) were at ringside for every team members' classes when she wasn't competing, she took great care of her horses, and had a smile on her face throughout the weekend. Thank you Christy!

Some very noteworthy scores in their respective divisions:

- · Amanda Perkowski and "Bacci," 1st place written test, 8th place in her division.
- · Christy Pellegrino and "Mr. Whiskers," 2nd place Dressage Trail, 80.71%.
- Nicole Carolan and "Tide Creek Diablo," 2nd place dressage test, 74%, 5th in their very large first level division.
- Madeline Griffith and "Snickers," 1st place written test, 3rd place dressage test, 62.4%, 2nd place dressage trail, 74.2%, 2nd place Prix Caprilli, 67.6%.
- · Erika Olijslager and "Delgany Flight," 5th place first level dressage test, 64.05%, 7th in their division.
- Deena Cahill and "Goldquest Cundiyo Kid," 4th place first level dressage test, 64.86%, 3rd place Prix Caprilli, 66.17%, and 1st place first level musical freestyle, 70.66%, 10th in her division.
- Ashley Maleson and "Martini's Eve," written test, 91%.

All of the team members, when not caring for their horse or competing, were watching and helping their teammates. The parents and siblings were incredible. Everyone did their part to make this weekend a success and a great experience for everyone. You can read some of the team members' stories this month and in the coming months in the newsletter.

At the end of July, the ESDCTA sent 3 teams to the USDF Region 1 Youth Team Competition at Morven Park in VA. You can read about the great teams and their results in next month's newsletter.

Sharon Spaziani of Millstone Pilates has generously donated her time, facility and expertise to the youth members on August 7. She is working with riders on improving their position, body awareness, strength and coordination and will give them take home exercises! Thank you, Sharon. If anyone is interested in taking advantage of this opportunity, e-mail Heidi Lemack at RBLStables@aol.com.

On August 21, there will be a Fix-a-Test clinic with Ann Forer "R" hosted by Cindy Roesener at Beaver Creek Equestrian Center in Ringoes, NJ. This is the perfect way to get ready for championship season. Look for information at ESDCTA.org or e-mail Cindy Roesener at croesener@hotmail.com.

It's Championship Time Again !!!!!

Here we are enduring the "joys" of mid-summer in central New Jersey, 95° with 95% humidity, and I'm writing about our fall championship show series, but July 30 and August 1 mark the opening dates of our Dressage Championship show and the USDF Adult Team Competitions, respectively.

ESDCTA is offering our members four big events during September and October.

Sept. 18 – ESDCTA Dressage Championship Sept. 24-25 – USDF Adult Team Competition

Oct. 14-16 – Garden State Classic/CBLM Championships

Oct. 29-30 – The NJHT and Eventing Championships

There has been a management change to the Dressage Championship show: the new manager will be Terry Masters. terrymasters@verizon.net / 609-912-9401 H / 609-468-0414 C.

After an absence of many years, the USDF Adult Team Competition is returning to NJ. This fun competition is a great way for all of us to get away for a weekend and have fun with our horses and friends.

Awards are given for just about everything! There are Team placings, Championship and Reserve Championship rider awards, Individual Championship classes, Musical Freestyles, Costume classes and Doggie Dressage classes. You can get really creative because all MFS classes can be ridden with both the horse and rider in costume.

And of course don't forget "THE EDGAR"! An ESDCTA sponsored high score team award in memory of Edgar Hotz. There will be one award for the highest scoring team at Training thru FEI and another award given to the highest scoring team in the Intro/Intro –W/T/C division.

ESDCTA plans to sponsor some GMO teams but anyone can form a team and enter. You don't need to be on a GMO Team. So get a group of friends together and have some fun.

Don't have 3 or 4 people to make up your own team? Then enter as a "Scramble Team"

Don't have all members riding at the same level? Then enter the "Mixed Level" Division.

All the information you need is in your omnibus or at www.esdcta.org

If you'd like to apply to be a member of an ESDCTA sponsored team, contact Cindy Anderson at 908-638-8381 or forcement107@gmail.com.

Naturally we'll need volunteers to help out at all these shows so if you can spare a half or full day, please get in touch!

A Connoisseur of Camps

By Gretchen Creesy, with photographs by Chuck Creesy

Thanks to educational grants from ESDCTA, I have been fortunate to attend two different adult riding camps in Vermont. Several friends have asked how I chose them and how they compare. When I initially began thinking about going to a camp with my horse—something I had never done because I never had a horse until five years ago—I first read reports from riders who had attended various camps: the USEA camps in North Carolina and Vermont, Denny Emerson's camps in the same states, Philip Dutton's camp in Pennsylvania, and Karen and David O'Connor's camp in Virginia. I had attended a two-day clinic with Lucinda Greene, and I had specific aspects of my riding that I wanted to improve. The reports helped me to assess each camp's program in relation to my goals and to get some idea of the riding levels of the campers at each.

Denny Emerson

In the end, however, it was the chance to watch and help ESDCTA riders at the Green Mountain Horse Association (GMHA) Training/Novice 3-Day Event in August 2010 that led me to choose Denny Emerson's camp, which ran in the week after the event. Denny runs a very structured camp. He's a teacher, and he expects you to show up not only for your morning and afternoon lessons (dressage with Sue Berrill and jumping with Sue and Denny), but also for the discussions and demonstrations following lunch and dinner. If you've read Denny's columns over the years (and now his new book, How Good Riders Get Good), you already know the kinds of skills he emphasizes—feeling the correct canter, developing an eye for striding, etc.—but there's nothing like having an eventing legend focused on your canter and your eye, and his Jack Le Goff impersonations were priceless. I came away just as Denny intended, a more confident rider with more "arrows in my quiver."

Holger Bechtloff

Having watched my friends have a blast at GMHA last year, I set my sights on riding in the Novice 3-Day this year. To get my horse and me acclimated to the grounds and the terrain, I decided to attend the USEA Adult Education Seminar held at GMHA. The camp follows immediately upon the June horse trials there, so the cross-country and stadium jumps are still up and flagged. What a contrast! At first, I was somewhat anxious about the seemingly casual approach to scheduling by the camp's founder and organizer, Barbara Marks of Southern Pines, NC. But I was immediately won over by her enthusiasm and by the extraordinary generosity of the clinicians. Barbara has been doing this for more than twenty years, and she knows how to persuade the best teachers to come to her camp year after year. The upper-level dressage riders had coaching from Holger Bechtloff, James Koford, Diane Ritz, and John Zapotti, all of who gave just as much serious attention to the greenest of event horses and riders as to the seasoned pros. Jumping was expertly and encouragingly supervised by Robert Costello, Jane Hamlin, Marcia Kulak, and Michael Page.

Forget the schedule! If a rider felt s/he should be in a different jumping group or wanted to try a lesson with a different clinician, every effort was made to accommodate the request. All that juggling made for very busy days for the clinicians, and we never did have the promised lunchtime talks. We made up for that with evening cocktails on the expansive porch of the GMHA Youth Center. (All meals are included, by the way, and were delicious!)

So, why make the large financial and time investment to go to a camp? More than a one- or two-day clinic near home, the camps gave me a chance to get outside of my everyday riding routines and to spend time with my horse in a way not usually possible. Under the eyes of trainers who had never seen me and my horse, I had to make an honest assessment of our weaknesses (mostly mine—stress on honest!). To be sure, no quick fixes were promised, but in each case I've come home with a plan for improvement and the confidence that I can be a better camper next year.

Michael Page

Go camping!
